

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES, ARTS & SOCIAL SCIENCES

Four-Year Curriculum for English

Degree Awarded: Bachelor of Arts with a major in English: Concentrations in Creative Writing, Literature or Professional Writing.

Total Credits Required: To obtain this undergraduate degree, the student must fulfill the requirements of the University Core Curriculum, the requirements for the program major and complete a minimum of 120 credit hours.

All English majors must officially declare a concentration through the College of Humanities, Arts & Social Sciences office.

English major classes and Core Curriculum options are selected with your academic advisor. Most students are able to earn a double major and/or one or two academic minors in addition to their English major. With careful advising, students may also complete their degree one or two semesters early.

The English major consists of 12 courses (36 credits) in English and includes a set of requirements for a 21-credit concentration that each student must fulfill. Graduating seniors must submit a final portfolio of their work.

*This is a sample sequence of course offerings for students enrolled in Fall 2025 or later. Classes may not be offered in this exact order. Please consult your advisor prior to registration. **
